

Emergency Petition
for Emergency In forma pauperis status,
and to keep that status under seal of the court

From Plaintiff; Tim Vawter, pro se, 30 W. Main St., Suite 321, Freehold, NJ 07728. Tel # (732) 431-5024

To the Honorable Garrett E. Brown Jr.,

I am requesting the court expedite my In forma pauperis application quickly, if possible, since the lawsuit I am filing includes a Preliminary Injunction regarding an important matter to be acted on relatively soon.

I have attached a Sworn Statement showing my low income status for the past year. My income today is virtually identical to my income when I was granted In forma pauperis status last year on 9/30/208 for civil case #08-4255.

I have previous pro se experience in federal court; I wrote and filed all of the plaintiff legal papers filed in federal civil cases #95-5620, #96-3618 and US Court of Appeals #96-5463. One of my grandfathers was a magistrate in Canada, so I was brought up with a good understanding of the law.

I am also requesting that, if granted, my In forma pauperis status be kept under seal by the Court. The reason is, this can cause embarrassment to me, since I do moral counseling work. I ~~have attached a copy of the hand-signed letter I received from the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff at the Pentagon commending me for my work.~~

Sworn Statement on low Income to support In forma pauperis form

I, Tim Vawter, do hereby swear and attest that I am low income and have been earning an average of less than $200.00 per week for the past year. I have a serious back injury resulting from a motorcycle crash and have two crushed discs at the base of my spine. Those severe injuries prevent me from working a full-time job and my income is low.

My income today is virtually identical to my income when I was granted In forma pauperis status last year on 9/30/2008 for the civil case I filed which is case #08-4255.
